The Witchert Chorale is a Haddenham-based mixed voice choir, formed in 2004, which has performed in concerts and on other occasions, including establishing a new tradition of singing May morning madrigals on Cuddington church tower!

It aims to bring a wide range of music to its audience, and has sung music from the 12th century up to arrangements from the 21st century.

It has raised almost £3000 so far in aid of Sudan, the Pakistan earthquake and various children's and local charities.
